

News Release

Mississaugas of the Credit Business Corporation appoints Warren Sault as CEO

Hagersville, ON (August 22, 2024) – Today, Mississaugas of the Credit Business Corporation (MCBC) announced the appointment of Warren Sault to Chief Executive Officer and President.

“Warren Sault has been an ardent champion of business and economic development opportunities for Mississaugas of the Credit First Nation and other First Nations for decades,” said Neil Freeman, Director and Board Chair for MCBC. “Mr. Sault understands the potential for MCFN Treaty lands and brings the necessary development experience and business acumen to unlock this potential for the First Nation.”

Mr. Sault, a member of Mississaugas of the Credit First Nation (MCFN), has served on MCBC’s Board of Directors, and was Executive Director of MCFN earlier in his career.

Sault’s business experience is extensive, spanning finance, development, and administration, as well as governance roles on boards of First Nations business organizations. He is the current Chairperson of Two Rivers Community Development Centre (TRCDC), an Aboriginal Financial Institution serving the business development lending needs of First Nations in southern Ontario, and Aboriginal Impact Capital.

Previously, Sault served as Chair of the Board for the National Aboriginal Capital Corporation Association (an association of Aboriginal Financial Institutions), and he has held roles with Chiefs of Ontario and First Nations Engineering Services Ltd. He is a graduate of McMaster University.

MCBC is the wholly owned business development arm of Mississaugas of the Credit First Nation, the sole and rightful Treaty Holders of most of Ontario’s Greater Golden Horseshoe region. MCBC is focused on projects and partnerships in real estate development, energy, construction and infrastructure.

- ## -

For further information, please contact:

Neil Freeman, Director and Board Chair, MCBC

email: neilbfreeman@outlook.com

phone: 905-581-4055 or cell 647-225-5775

